

NO SMALL MATTER

WHAT:

No Small Matter is the first feature documentary to explore the most overlooked, underestimated, and powerful force for change in America today: early childhood education. Through poignant stories and surprising humor, the film lays out the overwhelming evidence for the importance of the first five years, and reveals how our failure to act on that evidence has resulted in an everyday crisis for American families, and a slow-motion catastrophe for the country.

WHO:

Home-based, center-based, and school based early childhood professionals serving children birth through Grade 3 are invited to attend the screening of the film No Small Matter. Community members are encouraged to attend to as well. 1.5 hours of in-service provided.

WHY:

No Small Matters is a documentary that identifies the critical need for high-quality early childhood care and education. The implications of not having high-quality early childhood care and education affects the future of not only the child but the community and nation.
